

Social Media Contract

- I agree to uphold the rules put in place to protect me by my parents and teachers for online activity.
- I will be honest about the sites I visit and the people I interact with online at all times.
- I will not share my usernames and passwords with people who are not in my family.
- I will not share personal details such as name, phone number, age and address without my family's permission. I will not share those details about my family and friends.
- I will remember that the internet is public, even on a private group, and be mindful of what I am communicating and posting.
- I will be respectful and kind in my interactions with others online, and I will not be involved in the bullying, intimidation or harassment of others.
- I will support my friends who are being mistreated online.
- I will not engage with people I meet online in private chat, and I will not agree to meet up with them in person
- I will tell a family member or trusted adult if anything happens online that makes me feel unsafe or unhappy.
- I will find ways to balance my use of media, and respect my family's decisions about my online activity.
- I will remember that people post false information online, and that not everything on the internet is true.
